Notice of Personal Data Collection and
Consent Form for Providing Personal Data

Notification of Personal Data Collection:

In compliance with personal data protection laws and regulations, Tzu Chi Education Foundation (hereinafter referred to as "the Foundation") hereby informs you of the following matters before you provide your personal data:

1. The Foundation collects your data to conduct the selection process for the 12th president of Tzu Chi University. This data includes:
 - (1) Personal identification: For example, name, occupation, contact information (including but not limited to telephone number, E-mail, address, etc.);
 - (2) Government identification: For example, ID card number, passport number;
 - (3) Personal description: For example, age, gender, date of birth, nationality;
 - (4) Education, examination, technical or other professional qualifications: For example, academic credentials, professional skills, special licenses.
2. The Foundation will collect, process, and use your data prudently within the scope of the purpose (i.e., selection of the 12th president of Tzu Chi University) following personal data protection laws and related regulations.
3. Unless data collection involves international operations or activities, the Foundation will only use your data within the territory of the Republic of China.
4. You must provide accurate and complete personal data or provide it to ensure the Foundation can process the related measures of selecting the 12th president of Tzu Chi University for you.

5. Following Article 3 of the Personal Data Protection Act, you have the right to exercise the following rights regarding your data with the Foundation:

- (1) Inquire or request access.
- (2) Request a copy.
- (3) Request additions or corrections.
- (4) Request to halt collection, processing, and use.
- (5) Request deletion.

The Foundation will not be liable for any loss of rights resulting from your exercising the above rights.

You understand that this consent form complies with the Personal Data Protection Act and related regulations, and you agree that the Foundation retains this consent form for future reference and inspection.

I have been fully informed of the above notifications from the Foundation and consent to the Foundation's collecting, processing, and use of my data.
